

Water Treatment Plant Replacement Project

Update as of September 30, 2021

Since the last update Slayden has been doing the final grading and setting the monitoring wells. They are also watering the grass and it is beginning to sprout. In addition, Slayden has been hauling off all the garbage from the site. The team is currently demobilizing and most equipment will be offsite by Friday, October 8th.

